

Newport Music Club

Our main venue is
Cosy Hall, Water Lane, Newport, Shropshire TF10 7LD

Limited parking opposite the hall;
additional parking is available as shown on the map below

Our late Summer outdoor venue is
Edgmond Village Hall,
Shrewsbury Rd, Edgmond,
nr Newport, Shropshire TF10 8HU

Registered Charity No. 1076148

Newport Music Club

Tickets for individual concerts

Adult £15.00

Children/Students £5.00

Season ticket – six concerts

Adults £75.00

Children and young people under 18 or in full-time education £25.00

(additional child £10 for the season).

To reserve tickets in advance, contact the Music
Club at chairman@newportmusicclub.org or 'phone 07726 959233

Tickets are sold on the door on the night, cash or cheque only.

Individual concert tickets are available from
'Hey Jude' and 'Bobby's Café' in Newport.

Full details of all our concerts may be found on our website:

www.newportmusicclub.org

which contains links to the performers'
own websites.

Newport Music Club

Concert Season 2025

Celebrating 50 years of hosting great music in Newport!

Our season of six concerts brings music to our small, friendly venue in the heart of Newport.
Professional artists introduce and perform from a classical and contemporary chamber music repertoire, bringing together both well-known and lesser-known pieces and composers.

Sunday January 26th at 3.00 p.m.
Cosy Hall
Concert Royal –
Early Music Ensemble

Concert Royal was founded by Flautist Peter Harrison and Harpsichordist John Treherne. Their aim is to recreate the musical sound world of the Eighteenth and early Nineteenth Centuries through research, study and performance on historic instruments. Peter and John are joined in Concert Royal by Cellist Rachel Gray.

The ensemble has developed a distinctive style, presenting unique performances of drawing room music in an entertaining and informative way. Concert Royal aims to entertain and engage audiences with unique opportunities to travel back to the late Eighteenth Century to enjoy historically informed performances on instruments whose voices were first heard more than 250 years ago.

Saturday July 12th at 7.00 p.m.
Cosy Hall
Svetlana & Slava – Cello & Piano

Having trained at the Royal Northern College of Music Manchester, Russian cellist Svetlana Mochalova and Ukrainian pianist Slava Sidorenko met and then formed not only a musical relationship, but also marriage and a family!

They have won multiple awards and as part of their mission to engage with audiences in a more imaginative way, they have developed their own Sveta & Slava app which allows concert goers to see their Music a la Carte menu and vote for the pieces the duo will perform.

We are therefore expecting a wonderfully romantic evening with glorious music by Beethoven, Debussy, Mendelssohn, Ginastera, Rachmaninov and Prokofiev.

Saturday March 15th at 7.00 p.m.
Cosy Hall
Saxophone Spectacular
“Bach to the Future”

The Royal Birmingham Conservatoire Saxophone Ensemble are delighted to return to Cosy Hall for an extravaganza of music from the Renaissance to the modern day.

The whole family of saxophones will be in full force with music by Gabriel Gabrieli, Maurice Ravel, Katia Beugeais and South African giants of saxophone music Clare Loveday and Arthur Feder.

They will be joined by Stafford's super-talent Chris Gumbley as guest saxophonist and composer.

The ensemble regularly perform as part of the contemporary music series 'Frontiers' and have presented educational concerts as part of the conservatoire's chamber music festival.

Sunday August 31st at 3.00 p.m.
Edgmond Village Hall fields
Jackfield Brass Band

The prize-winning 30-plus piece Jackfield Brass Band, now in its 132nd year, is a frequent prize winner in competitions held throughout the UK and has won many trophies over the years. In 2021 Jackfield Brass Band achieved a notable sixth place in national finals.

The band continues to entertain the Ironbridge Gorge area and beyond with its richly mellifluous tones and will perform a wide selection of popular favourites from the brass band repertoire.

Saturday May 17th at 7.00 p.m.
Cosy Hall
Sebastian Stanley – Piano

Sebastian Stanley is a critically acclaimed British pianist; although Spanish by birth, he moved back to the U.K. at an early age, having soaked up the Andalusian way of life and musical spirit, which has shaped his musical direction.

Since graduating from the Royal College of Music in 2008, he has travelled extensively with his performances receiving fabulous reviews around the globe, performing in venues such as St John's Smith Square, St Martin in the Fields and the Leipzig Gewandhaus.

His Albeniz Sonata album for Piano Classics, and also his all-Granados album for EMEC Discos received rave reviews.

Apart from specialising in the music of the Spanish romantic and 20th century composers, he has a deep love for the works of Beethoven; most recently this has seen him perform all 32 Beethoven sonatas for the charity Macmillan Cancer Support.

Saturday November 15th at 7.00 p.m.
Cosy Hall
Lumas Winds Trio

Lumas Winds is an ensemble based in London who are committed to promoting the rich variety of wind chamber music repertoire and explore works that deserve recognition. This was highlighted in the six hidden gems on their debut album, The Naming of Birds, released in May 2024 with Champs Hill Records, which features works dating from every decade from 1960 to 2010 and includes three world premiere recordings.

Performing for us will be Rennie Sutherland on Clarinet, Bassoonist Florence Plane and Pianist David Palmer.

The ensemble has recently toured Scotland with the generous support of the Tunnell Music Trust.